Thomas Circle to Park Road Destined to Be Important Artery.

With more than $5,000,000 in new buildings planned or in the course of construction and with larger firms of the District seeking choice llocations, Fourteenth street northwest, from Thomas Circle to Park road, is destined to be the most important thoroughfare in the city, say leading bankers, automobile men and merchants of Northwest Washington. And as evidence of their forecasts they point to the growth during the past three years. "There are two forces that have brought this about," said W. H. Zepp, vice president of the United States Savings Bank, yesterday. "The coming of the retail automobile dealers into the region centerbuildings planned or in the cours sbile dealers into the region center-ing around Fourteenth and U streets and the building up of that preat residential section in Mount Pleasant and Columbia Heights, with its resultant development of an important business section in the vicinity of Columbia road and Park groad, are evidences of this," he con-

There are now more than thirty retail automobile dealers on Four-teenth street, and others are locating there rapidly, according to W. H. Smith, of the R. L. Taylor Automobile Company. This concern is building a new four-story addition to its present plant. Six other atructures, involving $1,500,000 expenditure, are being planned for various automobile agencies in the District. The latest one announced is the new $250,000 home of the Studebaker retail sales firm at Fourteenth and Q streets.

The fact that Fourteenth street is the only thoroughfare that exstends through the entire Northwest reason for its present prominence," declared B. N. McNell, of the Park Savings Bank, in explaining causes Heights district we have a population of more than 50,000 persons and in the entire district served by Fourteenth street there are perhaps Fourteenth street there are perhaps 100,000 residents," was said to be concrete evidence that this section gof the Northwest cannot help but boom. "But this section is only in sald the Columbia Heights banker. Robert P.
